

COMMUNICATION PREFERENCE FORM

Communication is key to our management approach, and we keep in touch with our clients on a regular basis so that everyone is fully up to date with what we're doing.

So that we may manage each development in accordance with the terms of our management agreement, we require certain information to be provided by property owners. We will collect and keep this data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations. This data will be available to all staff members while we are managing your property and will only be disclosed to third parties under strict conditions, including but not limited to times of emergency, conducting legal proceedings, providing data to a debt collection company, and, when appropriate, to our client. If you have any queries, please contact your property manager in the first instance.
